6. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?
(a) Importance of Disclosure Precontractual duty of disclosure - You have a duty to disclose all material facts, including but not limited to medical condition and state your age correctly. You have a duty to disclose any relevant information that you know or are expected to know to the best of your knowledge and in good faith. (b) Free-Look Period You may cancel your certificate by returning the certificate within 15 calendar days after the certificate has been delivered to you. The contributions that you have paid less any medical expenses will be refunded to you.

(c) Duty of Participant You should satisfy yourself that the plan serves your needs and that you can afford the contribution. (d) Iltizam bi Al-Tabarru' Your contribution after deducting Wakalah Fee shall be allocated into PRF based on Iltizam bi Al-Tabarru' concept. (e) Sharing of Surplus arising from PRF Any surplus from PRF shall be distributed between you and us in the ratio of 50:50. We are entitled to the surplus based on the Shariah principle of Ju'alah. (f) Record of Payment Please keep a copy of the transaction record as proof of contribution payment. (g) Switching Takaful Certificate It may not be advantageous to switch from one takaful certificate to another or from one Takaful Operator to another, as you may be subject to the new terms and conditions of the new takaful certificate or Takaful Operator. (h) Grace Period You are given a grace period of 30 days from the contribution payment due date. Non-payment of contribution after the grace period may lead to conversion into reduced paid-up certificate or early termination of your coverage. Please refer to the Takaful certificate for more details. (i) Nomination It is important that you nominate a person to receive the benefits payable under your certificate and ensure that the nominee is aware of the certificate that you have participated. Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the Takaful Certificate for the full list of terms and conditions under this certificate.
7. What are the major exclusions under this certificate? (a) Suicide - if death was due to suicide within 12 months from the commencement date or any reinstatement date of the Certificate, whichever is later, death benefit will not be payable. (b) No benefit of the certificate shall be payable if TPD results directly or indirectly from: (i) self-inflicted injury while sane or insane; (ii) any condition or disability that existed prior to or at the commencement date or any reinstatement date of the certificate, whichever is later. Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the Takaful Certificate for the full list of exclusions under this certificate.
8. Can I cancel my certificate? Yes. You can cancel your certificate. Participating in a family takaful plan is a long-term financial commitment. If you do not pay your contributions within the grace period, your coverage may be reduced or your certificate may terminate. The cash amount we will pay you when you cancel the certificate before the maturity period will be much less than the total amount of contribution that you have paid.
9. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact details? It is important that you inform us of any change in your/your nominee contact details to ensure that all correspondences reach you/your nominee in a timely manner.
