You have a duty to disclose any relevant information that you know or are expected to know to the best of your knowledge and in good faith.
- Free look period - you may cancel your ILT by returning the certificate within 15 days after the certificate has been delivered to you. The Takaful Operator will refund to you the unallocated contributions, the value of units that have been allocated (if any) at unit price at the next valuation date and any Tabarru' charge and certificate fee that have been deducted less any medical fee incurred.
- Grace period - In the event of non-payment of contribution, your certificate will remain in force as long as your Account Value is sufficient to cover the Tabarru' and other relevant charges. If the PIA becomes insufficient for any further deduction, thirty (30) days of grace period from the subsequent contribution due date are allowed for payment of a subsequent contribution. If any subsequent contribution remains unpaid at the end of the grace period, your certificate shall lapse and the coverage will cease.
- Duty of Participant - You should satisfy yourself that the plan serves your needs and that you can afford the contribution.
- Account value - the account value of the ILT depends on the performance of the investment-linked funds selected. The higher the level of takaful coverage selected, the more units will be absorbed to pay for the Tabarru' charges and the fewer units will remain to accumulate cash values under your certificate.
- Lapse of certificate - The ILT certificate will lapse when the value of investment units is insufficient to pay for the Tabarru' and other charges.
- Sharing of Surplus arising from Participants' Risk Fund (PRF) - Any surplus from the PRF shall be distributed between the Takaful Operator and the Participant in the ratio of 50:50. The Takaful Operator is entitled to the surplus based on the Shariah principle of Ju'alah.

If there is any investment loss arising from the PIA, the loss shall be borne by you.
- Record of Payment - It is important for Participant to keep the receipt or Debit Card/Credit Card/Bank Statement or Participant's pay slip as proof of payment of contribution for any future reference.
- Switching of Takaful Certificate - It may not be advantageous to surrender or replace an existing takaful certificate with another certificate, as you may be subject to new underwriting requirements.

- Nomination - you can choose who will receive the benefits upon your death by filling in a Nomination form. Your certificate will state whether you have already nominated a person to receive the benefits. If you have not chosen anyone, please complete the Nomination form which can be obtained from the Takaful Operator's representative and send it to the Takaful Operator immediately.
- Non-payment of Contribution for Payout Rider (if applicable) - Any non-payment of contribution for this rider by the expiration of the grace period shall result in this rider being early termination of your coverage. Please refer to the Supplementary Takaful certificate for more details.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the Takaful certificate for the full list of exclusions under this certificate.

8. Can I cancel my certificate?
