Outward Bill for Collection-i (OBC-i)

March 2023

1. What is this product about?

An Outward Bill for Collection-i (OBC-i) is a trade service provided by the Bank (called the Remitting Bank) to send out customer's sales/export shipping documents and collection instructions to the collecting bank in the buyer's/importer's country for presentation to the buyer (drawee) for payment. This intermediary service facilitates trade settlement on terms agreed between customer and their buyer.

The handling by the Remitting Bank of the shipping documents is based on customer's instructions in order to obtain payment or acceptance or based on other pre-determined terms and conditions in the Bank's collection instructions.

Documents for collection are subject to Uniform Rules for Collections, International Chamber of Commerce Publication No. 522 currently in force.

2. What is the Shariah concept applicable?

OBC-i is structured under the Wakalah bil Ujrah concepts. Wakalah bil Ujrah refers to a contract where a party, as principal (muwakkil) authorises another party as his agent (wakil) to perform a particular task on matters that may be delegated, with imposition of a fee. Under this concept, The Bank shall act as the agent for the principal who is the seller/exporter to:

- (i) Handle the processing of documents (sending transport documents together with commercial/financial documents to buyer/importer's bank ("Collecting Bank");
- (ii) Collect payment from Collecting Bank on their behalf; and
- (iii) Manage the collection account in providing day-to-day operations/maintenance of the account.

3. What do I get from this product?

- a) This is a payment mechanism by which a seller/exporter uses the services of banks to obtain payment from their buyer/importer. It provides a compromise between "open account" terms and payment in advance. Banks do not guarantee payment but only provide a service to collect funds as instructed. The remitting bank acts as agent for the seller/exporter (i.e. the principal).
- b) This payment method is simpler and cost efficient as compared to other trade services.

4. What are my obligations?

- a) In receiving documents for collection the Bank acts only as a collecting agent and has no obligation to examine the documents beyond the exercise of reasonable care. Therefore you are required to provide clear instruction to the Bank on the handling of the documents.
- b) You authorise the Bank to debit your account in the Bank for the payment of commission and all customary charges and Bank Agent's charges, if any. In addition, you authorise the Bank to debit your account in the Bank with all monies so paid or for which the Bank is liable under the OBC-i.

5. What are the fees and charges that I have to pay?

Cost of Courier

7. What if I fail to fulfil my obligations?

In the absence of you fixing a foreign currency exchange contract with the Bank to cover the OBC-i, upon the Bank's receipt of incoming funds from the Collecting Bank in relation to the OBC-i, the Bank may convert the amount received in foreign currency into Ringgit Malaysia at the Bank's prevailing counter rate of exchange before remitting the same to you.
