No.	Question	Answer
1.	Does the automatic moratorium apply to ALL types of property financing?	Yes, the automatic moratorium granted by HLISB under the deferment program applies to all types of property financing, granted to Individuals, disbursed prior to 1 April 2020. The financing must meet the criteria of: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> not in arrears exceeding 90 days as at 1 April 2020, and being denominated in Malaysian Ringgit. For Cashline-i which comes with a property financing account, please refer to question 13 below.
2.	I do not want to participate in the automatic moratorium. How do I opt-out of the automatic moratorium?	By default, all eligible financing accounts enjoy the automatic moratorium. You can also elect to just continue making your payments as usual, or whatever sums affordable to you during the period. There are no compensation charges. Note: For customers with standing instructions, please be guided by item 3 below. Refer to item 3 below on payment method options.
3.	What do I do with the standing instruction (SI) for the payment of my account?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> SI which you have given instructions to be set up by the Bank: We will temporarily stop standing instructions (SI) for payments from your Hong Leong Current Account/Hong Leong Current Account-i or Savings Account/Savings Account-i. SI which are set up by customers via Connect Online Banking: You will need to change your standing instruction(s) through Connect Online Banking should you wish to defer your financing instalments. Please remember to effect a new standing instruction for your payments before the end of the 6 months moratorium so that your payments are kept up to date after the moratorium period ends. SI from current account/current account-i or savings account/savings account-i account from other banks: Please amend the SI with the respective banks. Should you wish to make payments during the moratorium period, you can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Instruct us to reinstate the SI (see item 1 above); Do so via online transfers; Use our self-service terminals; or Set up another standing instruction via Connect Online Banking just for this moratorium period.

		Note: Unless you take actions on item 2 or 3 above (as the case might be), any payments we receive will go towards meeting the monthly payments. If you have a financing which is automatically deducted from your salary, and if you wish to participate in the automatic moratorium, you need to inform your employer to stop the salary deduction.
4.	When is my next due date for payment under the automatic moratorium?	If you participate in the automatic moratorium, your next due date for payment is the facility due date in October 2020.
5.	Does that mean the bank does not charge profit during the moratorium period?	Profit will accrue on the outstanding principal amount. That profit will not be compounded, in line with Shariah principles.
6.	If I defer, does that mean my instalment or payment is higher after the moratorium period?	Yes, a higher subsequent payment amount is necessary to pay the deferred principal and profit accrued during the moratorium period. If you wish to maintain the monthly instalment unchanged, please contact us. We will advise you of the revision to your instalment amount before the expiry of the moratorium period. This will also account for any change(s) to the OPR or Islamic Base Rate /Islamic Financing Rate during the moratorium period. If you foresee having challenges making the revised payment, you should contact our Consumer Collection Centre for a discussion earliest possible, before the end of the moratorium period, at: Tel: +603-79591888 Email: CollsCustomerFeedback@hlbb.hongleong.com.my
7.	I have a joint financing account. Does the automatic moratorium apply to all joint customers automatically?	Yes.
8.	I have a joint financing account. I wish to continue with financing payment. Do all joint customers need to notify the bank?	No, you do not need to notify the Bank. You can just continue making your payment as usual, or whatever sums affordable to you during the moratorium period. Refer also to item 3 above on payment method options.
9.	I opted out and made payments during the moratorium period. How will this be reflected in my financing account?	Any payments we receive will go towards meeting the monthly payments. That payment will first be reflected as Advance Payment in your account. At the end of the moratorium period i.e. at the end of September 2020, the bank will make an adjustment. We will reduce the Advance Payment by the same amount that you paid during the period, and

10.	I have Advance Payment in my financing account. But I want to participate in the automatic moratorium. Will the Bank deduct the payment from the Advance Payment? Do I need to withdraw the Advance Payment to avoid any automatic deduction?	No, we will not deduct the payment from the advance payment amount. You do not need to do anything, this is the process we will follow during the 6 months moratorium period.
11.	Does my Advance Payment operate the same way during the moratorium period?	Yes, for all daily rest accounts, any Advance Payment will continue to offset the calculation of the Eligible Outstanding Balance for profit rate computation per the facility terms and conditions.

		For monthly rest accounts, at the end of the moratorium period, a review will be made on the excess payment made and a credit to your financing account may be performed accordingly.
12.	I have more than 1 housing financing account with the bank. Can I opt out of the automatic moratorium for only some, and not all of the property financing accounts?	Yes, you can elect to make payment to any of your financing accounts. Refer to item 3 or 4 above, whichever is applicable on payment methods.
13.	I have a Cashline-i facility with the property financing account. Does the automatic moratorium apply to the Cashline-i facility?	Yes, it is eligible, provided your account meets the eligibility criteria mentioned in item 1 above. Please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions on Cashline-i Deferment Program.
14.	My financing account has not been drawn down/disbursed at all, but I expect disbursement to happen during the 6 months. Does the automatic moratorium apply to me?	No, the automatic moratorium applies only to financing accounts which were disbursed before 1 April 2020.
15.	Does the moratorium apply to new financing approved during the 6 months?	No, the automatic moratorium does not apply to any new financing approved on or after 1 April 2020.
16.	My financing has not been fully released, and I am only paying Grace Period Profit (GPP) currently. Does the automatic moratorium apply to me?	Yes, the automatic moratorium applies to any financing account with disbursement before 1 April 2020.
17.	My financing account has only been partially drawn down/disbursed. During the moratorium period, more disbursements are made. Are the newly disbursed amounts eligible for payment deferment during the moratorium period?	Yes, the newly disbursed amounts will be eligible as the automatic moratorium applies to all financing accounts which had a disbursement before 1 April 2020.
18.	Can I settle or redeem my property financing during this moratorium period?	Yes. Please contact us if you wish to do so.

No.	Question	Answer
19.	Can I sell my property during this moratorium period?	Yes, unless your facility terms and conditions contain a property sale moratorium that has not expired during this period e.g. Skim Rumah Pertamaku, or where there are specific conditions on this matter in your financing agreement.
20.	Do I need to pay for my fire takaful during this period?	Yes, the automatic moratorium applies only to financing payment and compensation charge. Other charges are not subject to the automatic moratorium. You must always ensure that the property under financing is adequately covered with fire takaful.
21.	How about other fees and charges?	Yes, other fees and charges (except compensation charge) continue to apply as usual. Where applicable, we may debit your financing account accordingly.
22.	Do I have to pay for my Mortgage Reducing Term Takaful (MRTT) during the moratorium period?	Where MRTT is financed into your financing, the moratorium applies to the payment. If you have self-financed MRTT due during this time, you will need to ensure that you honour the obligations including the payment of the contribution.
23.	Will Mortgage Reducing Term Takaful (MRTT) protection coverage be extended in line with any extended tenure of the financing (if applicable)?	The MRTT protection coverage will continue during the moratorium period. Additional MRTT costs will be imposed if you wish to extend the protection coverage in line with any extended tenure of the financing (if applicable). Please contact us if you wish to do so.
24.	My account is currently 1 month overdue, will the Bank charge any Compensation Charges during the moratorium period?	No, there will be no additional Compensation Charges imposed on the deferred amount during the moratorium period.
25.	Since my financing is under the automatic moratorium, will my CCRIS records be adversely affected?	No, there is no CCRIS financial record impact if the account is prompt at the point of deferment request. If the account is more than 1 month in arrears at the point the automatic moratorium starts, your CCRIS record will remain unchanged during the moratorium period.
26.	My financing is in default, can I qualify? Can financing under rescheduling and restructuring (R&R) program be eligible for the automatic moratorium?	Financing accounts that are already more than 90 days in arrears as at 1 April 2020 will not qualify for the automatic moratorium. Customers are advised to approach the bank to seek assistance. Financing under R&R programs are also eligible for the automatic moratorium subject to it meeting the eligibility criteria in item 1 above.
27.	How is the automatic moratorium different from the other financing moratoriums announced by banks recently?	There is no difference between existing moratorium announced by the Bank and this deferment program.

No.	Question	Answer
28.	If my financing is under the automatic moratorium, would I still be eligible to apply any new financing from Banks during the moratorium period?	Yes. You are still eligible to submit any new financing application during the moratorium period subject to your affordability and to be assessed by the bank accordingly.
29.	My financing account is currently 10 months overdue, can I opt in for this automatic moratorium?	No, you are not eligible under this automatic moratorium. However, if you would like to discuss any other payment plans, you may contact/email our Consumer Collection Centre at the contact points mentioned above in Question 6.
30.	If I participate in the deferment program, will I receive Reminder Notice / Legal Letters from the Bank during these 6 months?	No, as your financing is automatically opted in for the deferment program, there will not be any reminder notices/legal letters during this period.
31.	Will I continue to receive notices on my property financing account from the Bank during the moratorium period?	Yes, you will continue to receive notices, letters and communication during the moratorium period.
32.	I have compensation charge or miscellaneous charges owing on my account. Is my account eligible for the automatic moratorium?	Yes, provided that your account meets the eligibility criteria mentioned in Question 1.
